POLICE AND MEDIA HUSH UP THIS MAN'S MURDER!

POLICE, Home Office and media chiefs are involved in a conspiracy to hush-up the murder of an elderly White man by a mob of Black youths who rioted outside a National Front election meeting in Tottenham, North London, on Tuesday 3rd May.

Albert Mariner (pictured above) was walking peacefully with friends to the meeting when they were showered with bricks and bottles.

One of these missiles struck Mr. Mariner on the head. An ambulance was summoned and he was taken to hospital. After treatment he returned to his home in Bethnal Green.

Sometime during the afternoon of the following day, he died.

The Police advised his relations that a doctor had determined that he had died "from heart failure".

Mr. Mariner was buried shortly after at a funeral attended by more than 50 of his National Front comrades — and two Special Branch observers.

It is true that three years ago Mr. Mariner underwent hospital treatment for a heart condition, but he regained his health and regularly thereafter attended National Front marches and meetings without any ill effect.

The "Heart failure" explanation is obviously rubbish. Mr. Mariner died as a result of criminal assault. He was MURDERED.

MEDIA SILENT

Press statements giving details of the murder were circulated to the entire news media. Not a word was reported anywhere.

After the anti-NF rioter Kevin Gately died as a result of a blow to the head during the Red Lion Square riot of 1974 a Judicial Public Inquiry was conducted by Lord Scarman.

After the anti-NF rioter Blair Peach died as a result of a blow to the head during the Southall riot of 1979 the House of Commons Home Affairs Committee conducted a review of the working of the Public Order Act.

In both these cases autopsies and Coroners' Inquests were held.

Albert Mariner was quickly shovelled underground without an autopsy, without an Inquest, without even so much as a Police constable's inquiry and without a word being said by the 'news' media!

One does not have to be paranoid to conclude that the authorities and the media are involved in a conspiracy to hush-up a murder — or a genius to understand why.

If the Police made efforts to track down and prosecute the thug who threw the missile which hit Mr. Mariner and if they prosecuted those responsible for issuing a leaflet which mobilised the mob and incited its violence, what would be the result?

A "Tottenham Black Defence Committee" would be formed. Police stations and Courts would be besieged by mobs. Trials would be turned into farces by unruly Black lawyers seeking Black majority juries. In the event of convictions, major riots might ensue.

The authorities have now become so thoroughly intimidated by similar such events that they have obviously concluded that to prosecute those responsible for the murder of Albert Mariner, a National Front member, would be "bad for community relations".

When this attitude is compared to the relentless prosecution of Joe Pearce through three Race Act trials until a 'Guilty' verdict was obtained, one can see how Britain's heritage of law and justice has been corrupted by the insanity of multi-racialism.

POLICE BURDEN

The authorities are also fearful that a proper inquiry into Mr. Mariner's death would burden the Police with some of the responsibility for the event.

Why did the local Police chief allow what he himself described before the riot as "an angry and, we think, armed crowd of about 600 young Blacks" to form up from 5.15 pm outside the hall when the meeting was not due to start until 8.00 pm?

Why did the Police chief try to use the threatening presence of the mob as a means to try and scare NF officials into abandoning a meeting which earlier that day a High Court judge had ordered must be allowed to take place?

A threatening, disorderly and armed mob assembled for the stated purpose of preventing a lawful election meeting from taking place was clearly an "unlawful assembly". Why did the Police tolerate it?

These and other questions relating to the murder of Albert Mariner will only be answered at a public judicial inquiry.

But such an inquiry will not be set up unless all of Albert's friends mobilise a sustained campaign to expose the authorities' cover-up.

A special organisation has been formed to do this. It is called the Albert Mariner Public Inquiry Campaign.

To show the authorities that they are not 'off the hook', the Campaign has called a protest march and rally for Saturday 30th July.

This will take place in Tottenham from the spot where the Black mob was allowed to gather prior to their murderous riot.

The National Front will be supporting this activity and all NF members and patriots everywhere are urged to attend.

The Police insisted on allowing the Mayor of Haringey, Cllr. Brian Bullard, the Labour candidate Jenni Fletcher and a crowd of 50 other anti-NF demonstrators to attend the hall. This rabble spent more than an hour trying to stop the business of the meeting. The Police refused to eject any of them.

NO SYMPATHY FOR RENEGADE FINNEGAN

WE FEEL no sympathy for Tom Finnegan, the Conservative candidate for Stockton, who failed by a handful of votes to win the seat after his former connections with the National Front had been "exposed".

He suppressed information about his background when he was selected as a Tory candidate. He falsely declared to The Times that he had never before contested in a Parliamentary election when he had done so twice as an NF candidate. He claimed he did not realise the NF was "racist" when he joined it. But at NF public meetings in Birmingham he would hold a £5 note in the air and proclaim: "I'll give this to anybody who can prove to me a nigger ever invented anything!"

Once his background came to light he tried to placate the media by promising to set up a branch of the Anglo-Asian Conservative Association and by supporting calls for election deposits to be raised so that NF candidates could not stand in elections.

Finnegan left the NF to support a Tory-Populist splinter group led by the drunken fake John Kingsley Read. Finnegan soon saw that Read's group was doomed, and so ambition and opportunism led him to the Tory Party.

The NF was greatly enriched by the departure of Finnegan and his kind. The Tories deserve him.

NF News seeks to persuade its readers to feel angry about the evils of multi-racialism and to direct their anger solely at the corrupt politicians who created a racial problem in Britain, and not to the Immigrant people in general. "Racialism" is NOT unlawful — only "racial hatred".

JEWES RIDE HIGH IN THATCHER REGIME

PRIME Minister Margaret Thatcher has given two of the three most important posts in her Cabinet to members of the Zionist-Jewish community. She has made Leon Brittan Home Secretary and Nigel Lawson Chancellor of the Exchequer.

While she appointed a Gentile, Sir Geoffrey Howe, as Foreign Secretary, she also appointed an ardent Zionist Malcolm Rifkind as his Minister of State.

Sir Keith Joseph was retained as Minister of Education and Lord Belwin (Irwin Bellow) was appointed Local Government Minister.

A clue to the real reason why Francis Pym was sacked as Foreign Secretary was given in a cynical little item published by the Jewish Chronicle on 17th June:

"Mr. Francis Pym's dismissal from the new Government by Mrs. Thatcher has nothing whatever to do with his conduct of foreign policy. It was entirely due to domestic factors.

"The former Foreign Secretary will hardly be missed by Israel.

"THE JEWISH STATE"

"Although Mr. Pym was formally a member of the Conservative Friends of Israel, Britain's relations with the Jewish State deteriorated markedly during his year at the Foreign Office.

"He did not include Israel among the countries he visited during his Middle East tours, and he was so stridently critical of her policies that the Israeli Government was driven to accuse the Foreign Office of bias."

The Board of Deputies of British Jews likewise could not resist flaunting Jewish power. A spokesman declared:

"The Board hopes that together with the Attorney-General, the new Home Secretary (Leon Brittan) will find ways and means to strengthen the Race Relations Act, so as to curb the activities of those who want to sow discord and promote hatred of Jews and other ethnic minorities."

Brittan will have at his elbow Neville Nagler, head of the Home Office community relations department — a synagogue officer and an admitted contact-man for the Board of Deputies!

Mrs. Thatcher's personal publicity adviser during the election was Gordon Reece. He joined Mrs. Thatcher's personal staff in 1975 and in 1978 she appointed him Director of Publicity at Tory Central Office.

It was he who switched the Tory Party's advertising account to the Jewish firm Saatchi and Saatchi.

JEWISH BILLIONAIRE

After the 1979 election he moved to California to become a Vice-President of Dr. Armand Hammer's Occidental Petroleum Corporation.

Mrs. Thatcher is a personal friend of Dr. Hammer despite the fact that this Jewish billionaire specialises in trade with the Communist bloc.

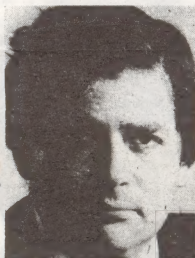

The current Central Office Director of Publicity is Anthony Shrimley, the Jewish former editor of the now defunct NOW! magazine owned by the Jewish millionaire and Thatcher supporter Sir James Goldsmith.

Other promotions for or awards to Jews made by Mrs. Thatcher recently include:

The appointment of Stuart Young as Chairman of the Board of Governors of the BBC. Mr. Young is the brother of David Young who was appointed by Mrs. Thatcher as Chairman of the Manpower Services Commission.

The knighthood for Alfred Sherman, Chairman of the Tory Party's very powerful Centre for Policy Studies "think tank" (of which David Young was once a member).

"U.K. A SUBSIDIARY OF 'EUROPE LIMITED'"

"THERE are now real signs of progress. We must think of Europe as one Nation — something like 'Europe Ltd.', 'Europe S.A.' or 'Europe N.V.' — with the United Kingdom purely as a subsidiary of that parent company."

This treasonable statement came from the Lord Mayor of London, Sir Anthony Jolliffe, in a speech to the Belgian British Union in Brussels at the end of April.

The Lord Mayor of London is not elected by the people of London but by the City Livery Companies.

CITY FINANCIERS

The hierarchies of these companies are dominated by the senior businessmen, financiers and lawyers who constitute the leadership of the financial institutions of the City of London.

Consequently the Lord Mayor of London is representative of these international financiers and multinational companies.

These interests, through his statement, have made it clear that they intend to relentlessly pursue their aim of eliminating all national identities so as to form a Europe-wide and then a World-wide market place, and with it a World Government.

MONSTROUS FRAUD

The Common Market, pressured into existence by these anti-nationalist forces, has been a monstrous fraud perpetrated on the British people.

In 1983 Britain will still make a net contribution of over £1,000 million to support French farmers and European bureaucrats — and this at a time when we have over 3 million people jobless.

Mrs. Thatcher's claim to be "tough" on the Common Market is as fraudulent as her immigration policies.

However, some organisations do gain from the Common Market. Multinational companies such as Timex can run down a Dundee factory losing hundreds of jobs to move production to Besancon in France with the help of aid by the French Government.

"RACKETEERING"

Recently the American based Hyster fork-lift company was able to play off one government against another to secure aid of £19.5 million from Britain to site its factory at Irvine.

Another group who gain are the European bureaucrats. An investigation is currently being conducted into allegations of "racketeering, incompetence and fraud" which were contained in the 1981 report of the Court of Auditors of the Common Market Institutions.

This report revealed that a holiday camp for the children of bureaucrats had £13,000 in unexplained expenditure; that no one knows where £700 million in aid to developing countries has gone — nor the value of aid that has been given to Poland — and that messengers and secretaries can claim entertainment allowances without explanation.

The Common Market was the brainchild of crooks, it was foisted on the British people by crooks and now it is being run by crooks. Britain must get out of the Common Market and the crooks must be put in jail.

TORIES' REWARD FOR BRITAIN: ANOTHER MILLION UNEMPLOYED

WITHIN days of the Conservatives' General Election victory, Mrs. Thatcher's pre-election assurance that her government "was on the right track for industrial recovery" was shown to be a sham.

In the week following Polling Day:

- Unilever-owned Birds Eye-Walls food group announced the loss of 2,200 jobs.
- United Biscuits announced 2,000 redundancies.
- Renold engineering lost 1,200 jobs.
- The Dowty coal mining machinery firm lost 400 jobs.
- Many other smaller firms announced equally serious job losses.

All these announcements were deliberately delayed until after the election.

It is perhaps the ship building industry which shows the end result of Conservative policies most clearly.

British Shipbuilders was nationalised six years ago with a workforce of 90,000. This has now been cut to 64,000.

The departing Chairman of BS, Sir Robert Atkinson, has announced that further "job losses could be significantly greater than 9,000".

In recent years supposedly British ship-owning firms have been placing an ever increasing proportion of their building and re-fitting business overseas.

Recently the Cunard Countess, after her service in the Falklands, was given a £2 million refit in a Maltese rather than a British yard.

Only 44 per cent of the ships owned by British ship owners are built in Britain. 82 per cent of West Germany's ships are built in West Germany and 77 per cent of France's ships are built in France.

'Even the Government controlled Central Electricity Generating Board has been ordering a cross-Channel cable-laying vessel in Korea!

It is absurd to expect British workers to have to compete with South East Asia workers who are often on a fraction of the wages that have been built up in this country as a result of decades of Trade Union pressure and negotiation.

Millions of British workers like these voted to give the Tories another term of office. Another million of them now face the dole queue within 12 months.

The Tories' internationalist concept means that British workers are now expected to compete with the cheapest labour throughout the world — no matter where or under what conditions they work, not excluding the forced labour of Communist countries!

As one senior union official said recently:

"If we improved productivity by 100 per cent we still could not compete with the Koreans and all their hidden subsidies."

As a result of Mrs. Thatcher's refusal to introduce import controls to exclude manufactured goods made by such cheap labour in Africa and Asia, many of Britain's most well known firms are in serious trouble. According to Datastream, a firm of stock market analysts, four out of every ten of Britain's larger companies could end up in receivership.

Their analysis in April this year showed that British Leyland, British Aluminium, Dunlop, Lucas, Tube Investments and Renold (the firm that has just laid off 1,200 workers) are likely candidates for failure.

The Conservative Government over the last four years squandered our North Sea Oil, created 3 million unemployed and destroyed whole sectors of British industry.

Mrs. Thatcher with her increased majority is now determined to kill off what is left.

Already the latest trade figures show that we are importing massively more than we are exporting. Our trade deficit in April was £360 million, by May it had soared to £552 million.

The British people allowed themselves to be conned by the media into giving Mrs. Thatcher another term in office. That was their decision.

Now mass unemployment for themselves and their children is a permanent prospect. That is their reward.

'BRIBES TO BLACKS' POLICY FAILS AS NEW RACE RIOTS FLARE

WE HAVE always warned that the attempt to build a multi-racial society in Britain would lead to precisely the same social collapse that is the distinguishing feature of multi-racial societies everywhere else in the world.

Our warnings were vindicated during 1980 and 1981 when "mainly Black" mobs burned and looted St. Pauls in Bristol, Brixton, Toxteth and other inner-city areas.

A government with the interests of both Black and White at heart would have confessed that the multi-racial experiment was a failure and implemented a humane scheme to re-settle the Coloured aliens in their lands of ethnic origin.

But the people who control our country have as their principal objective the destruction of our — and all other — nations and the progressive construction of a World Government. They see multi-racialism as an essential tool for this job as race-mixing destroys a sense of national identity among the population.

So they set about trying to make the multi-racial experiment work by throwing huge sums of money at the "minority ethnic" communities in various "positive discrimination" schemes.

But this corrupt policy is starting to fail as "mainly Black" mobs take to the streets again . . .

BRIXTON

A MOB of about 200 Blacks rampaged through the "Front-line" area of Brixton on the night of 4th June after two Police officers detained two Blacks in a "routine drugs investigation".

As a crowd gathered a Black youth stole one of the PCs' radios. The officer gave chase and the youth stabbed him in the back.

Police reinforcements were rushed to the scene as the mob overturned the "Panda" car and stormed about the area hurling bricks and bottles.

The riot caused Lambeth Police chief Commander Alex Marnock to summon a meeting of the new Lambeth Community Police Consultative Group. This ended in uproar as 100 "community leaders" heckled Cmdr. Marnock's deputy, Chief Supt. Tony Speed, who read out a "discussion paper".

Chief Supt. Speed told the hooting rabble:

"The reasons for the deterioration in relationships are not easily identified. It is probably a result of lighter, warmer evenings causing more people to congregate and obstruct the footways . . . perhaps the end of the 'honeymoon' period for the Railton Road policing team, now seen by some as a threat to their activities, particularly on the drugs scene . . ."

Black lawyer Rudi Narayan immediately announced a "war of resistance" against "Police squatters".

NOTTING HILL

FIVE Police officers were injured in what Scotland Yard called "a disturbance" at the notorious West Indian Mangrove Club in Notting Hill, on 20th June. Two Blacks were arrested in the club in connection with car theft and obstruction offences. The club has regularly been raided by the Drugs Squad.

The "disturbance" involved a brawl between 30 Police officers and an unspecified number of young Blacks. One Police Inspector sustained a head wound.

A mob of young Blacks attacked Police in Harlesden on 31st May and 'rescued' a man who had been arrested for a serious wounding offence.

Exhausted riot Police leaving St. Pauls, Bristol, on 22nd June after doing battle all night with a mob of Blacks who had stoned them, destroyed several of their vehicles and looted shops. An inane editorial in the Bristol Evening Post was headlined "Not a riot!"

PECKHAM

FOR the third year running a riot by Black youths disrupted the final day of the traditional fair held on Peckham Rye common.

On the night of Saturday 18th June more than 300 Blacks hurled bricks at Police, smashed shop windows in Peckham Rye Lane and injured a 56 year old Fair stallholder.

Only 12 of the rioters were arrested — 11 for breach of the peace and one for possession of an offensive weapon.

In 1981 three Police were injured and 38 shops were looted. In 1982 a mob rampaged through Rye Lane smashing shop windows.

This traditional British fair is now likely to be banned.

READING

FOUR Policemen were surrounded and stoned by a mob of about 150 Black youths at a fair in Reading on 4th May. The officers had gone to the assistance of a youngster who was being kicked.

Inspector Tony Ray said afterwards: "Ninety per cent of the mob were Coloured. It's high time we got our heads out of the sand and started speaking the truth about these incidents."

"This is what happens when Coloureds congregate together."

"The fair has been in town for several days. During that time the organisers have experienced trouble with Black youths throwing stones and upsetting the public."

BRISTOL

A NEAR repeat performance of the infamous Black riot of April 1980 was given in St. Paul's, Bristol, during the night of 21st June.

Just as last time the trouble flared when Police tried to arrest a Black man at the notorious West Indian Black and White Cafe in Grosvenor Road.

A mob of 200 "predominantly Coloured" youths assembled and began stoning the Police. Eventually 100 specially-equipped riot Police were called out to do battle.

The fighting raged throughout the night. Several officers were injured, vehicles were destroyed and numerous shops looted.

One eye-witness said: "It was a smaller version of April 1980. I saw kids stoning and battering Police vans. The Police were sitting in City Road with their armour on. The kids had nothing better to do, so they did battle with them."

Bristol Police community relations boss Supt. Derek Lane said:

"We have to be realistic. Incidents will continue to occur."

In confirmation of this it was revealed recently that Avon and Somerset Police (whose area includes Bristol) are one of the few constabularies stocking plastic bullets.

Chief Constable Brian Weigh said: "This equipment is part of the operational equipment of the force for use as a last resort."

OUTRAGE AT PLAN TO SUBSIDISE BLACK FIRMS

COUNCILLORS on the West Midlands County Council have been bombarded with complaints ever since Councillor Geoffrey Edge, Chairman of its Economic Development Committee, announced in May that £200,000 was to be spent subsidising Black-run businesses.

The scheme stipulated that the owner or at least half the business' management must be Black to qualify for a loan of up to £10,000.

To give the Blacks even more help it was decided to appoint an adviser

"to guide ambitious Black people in the West Midlands into business".

After a stinging attack by Charles Baugh, the National Front Parliamentary candidate for Wolverhampton NE, was reported in a local paper, the Express and Star, Council leaders could only weakly reply that the scheme would be controlled by "stringent safeguards".

When the Commission for Racial Equality was called in by angry ratepayers they immediately looked for ways to implement this "positive discrimination" without making a mockery of the Race Relations Act.

Mr. Francis Deutsch, the CRE's Jewish senior legal adviser, announced that a scheme could be devised which would have "personal or environmental criteria which can encompass Whites but still meet the exceptional hardship of the Black community".

In other words: Blacks Only.

Worried by the barrage of complaints, the Labour dominated Council announced on 2nd June — just seven days before the General Election — that they were "reconsidering" the scheme.

We will wait and see.

Throughout Britain — and not least in the West Midlands — White workers are being thrown out of jobs, yet public funds are being spent exclusively on setting up Blacks in their own firms.

VOODOO AT THE VATICAN

WHEN African Roman Catholic priest Emmanuel Milingo was promoted Archbishop of Lusaka and Primate (sic) of Zambia, RC liberals squealed with delight. They have been noticeably silent, however, about Milingo's career since then.

Missionaries started to complain that he practised Voodoo and witch-doctor-style healing. Last year

Archbishop Milingo

Milingo was summoned to the Vatican where he is now held incommunicado while he undergoes "medical and psychiatric tests".

Milingo apparently has the ability to cure states of hysteria among his country's womenfolk.

A Vatican official remarked: "At issue is whether he invoked the Holy Spirit for Voodooism."

Milingo reposted: "What's wrong with it, if it makes people feel better?"

Sloppy thinking like that could well lead to Milingo's psychiatrist's couch being replaced by an Inquisitor's rack!

TREASON REWARDED

AFTER a political career devoted to serving every anti-British cause under the sun, the "Right Honourable" William Whitelaw has been rewarded with a hereditary Viscountcy and is now "Lord" Whitelaw of Penrith.

Whitelaw was No. 2 traitor in the Edward Heath government when British national sovereignty was handed over to the Common Market. He championed Heath's decision to allow the Ugandan Asians to flood in.

As No. 2 traitor in Margaret Thatcher's government Whitelaw — trembling with fright after the Black riots — instituted the 'Scarmanisation' of Police - Immigrant relations and gave the green light to Police oppression of the National Front.

Let us hope he lives long enough to get the reward he really deserves!

UNKIND CUT

THE sudden calling of the General Election prevented the passage of a Bill instigated in the House of Lords which would have prohibited the barbaric practice of female circumcision in Britain.

Such mutilations are common among African tribes and African Immigrants in Britain are causing such 'operations' to be performed on their girl children.

These are sometimes performed by back-street 'witch-doctors' and sometimes, amazingly, by legitimate medical practitioners.

Some tribal traditions 'only' demand the removal of the clitoris, while others demand the excision of the clitoris, the labia, the vulval skin, the mons veneris or even the lymph nodes.

These ghastly ritual mutilations do not impede females' capacity to bear children but eliminate their capacity to enjoy the sexual act and so render them less likely to copulate with anybody other than their husbands.

The General Medical Council on 26th May forbade doctors in Britain to perform such operations except for genuine medical reasons, but this ruling does not apply to back-street tribal butchers.

FROM DOPE TO DOPE

THIS multi-racial couple — Bob and Sylvia Long — had their recent wedding celebrations spoiled when Sylvia got news that she was to be deported after having served a 16 month jail sentence for smuggling £6,000 worth of cannabis.

Sylvia is a Zimbabwe-Asian and she came to Britain "on a holiday" with her dope. When she got to Holloway Jail she found another sort of dope: Bob Long, a prison teacher.

By marrying Sylvia upon her release, Bob hoped to give her the right to stay in Britain. Dulwich MP John Silkin has secured a stay of deportation pending an appeal.

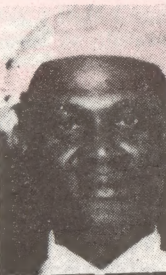

"BUT WE'RE ALL BLACK!"

A BLACK African barrister hoped that racial solidarity would induce two West Indian muggers to hand back a £300 gold chain they had robbed from his woman friend, an Old Bailey jury heard in May.

Malik Owusu lived on the Angel Town Estate, Brixton. The two muggers, David Barnes and Patrick Rhoder, used the estate as their hunting ground.

Owusu recognised one of the muggers and said:

"David, I know you well. Please return the chain and we will forget about this incident. We are all Black!"

Election effort boosts membership

A MASSIVE publicity effort by the National Front in the general election involving the distribution of 1,300,000 leaflets and nationwide television and radio broadcasts has resulted in 3000 people asking for further details about the party.

NF branches are now working flat out to follow up the enquirers and recruit them as NF members. Applications to join the party are flooding in at a rate not seen for years.

This — and not big votes from the electorate — was the harvest that the National Front was looking for when it plunged itself into Mrs. Thatcher's 'cut and run' election.

With the majority of the mass media orchestrated to depict Mrs. Thatcher's Conservative Party as a 'patriotic' crusade and the Labour Party as an 'extremist' shambles, it was clearly not an election in which a radical nationalist party could hope for much electoral support.

All the minority parties in the election — NF, Ecology Party, Communist Party and others — were steamrollered by the media-induced stampede to the Conservatives.

However, despite the reduction in the NF vote and frantic media efforts to promote the Ecology Party the NF was still able to maintain its position as Britain's premier minority party.

In a bid to displace the NF from this position the press and broadcasting media accorded the Ecology Party considerable coverage. For example, the BBC allocated one of Sir Robin Day's Election Call programmes (which is simultaneously transmitted on nationwide TV and radio) to the Ecology Party. The BBC refused to grant the NF a similar facility.

Despite this the Ecology Party only managed to average 1.07 per cent of the poll compared to the NF's average of 1.10 per cent.

A feature of the results was that sundry 'Nationalist' splinter groups came nowhere even compared to the NF's modest performance.

The National Front was the only nationalist party able to put up a full campaign for the election. Besides the election leaflets and posters most of our candidates were able to gain local publicity and carried out a variety of campaign activities including loudspeaking, canvassing etc.

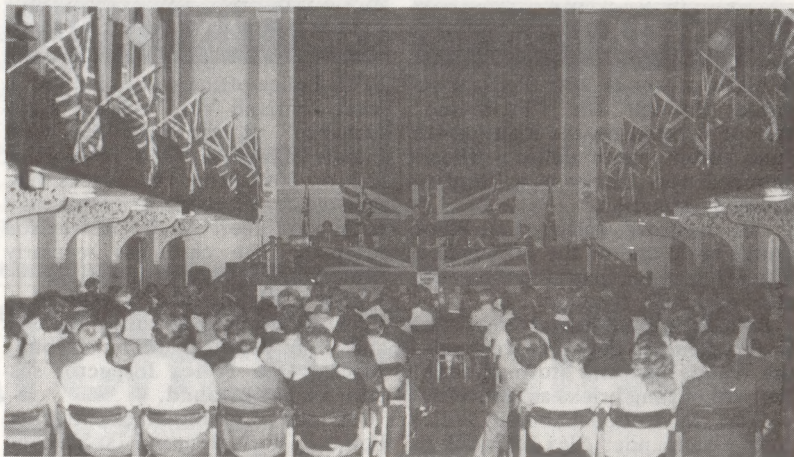

Four regional public meetings were held: in Gravesend, Kent where the local Asians rioted; in Leeds where NF Chairman Andrew Bruns was the NF candidate; in Blackburn where the local Asians didn't riot; and in Stratford, East London, where some of the NF's best results were obtained.

The campaign was brought to its climax with a public meeting in the Great Hall of Caxton Hall, Westminster, where 300 people attended a rousing eve-of-poll rally.

As a result of the hard work of its members the NF has emerged from the election significantly stronger than when it entered the fray, and is now able to devote itself to creating new branches throughout the country.

The platform at the Caxton Hall rally: (L to R) — Rally Chairman Terence Denville-Faulkner; NF Deputy Chairman Ian Anderson; City of London & Westminster South candidate Anthony Reeve; NF National Activities Organiser Martin Webster; NF Chairman Andrew Bruns; NF Administration Officer Michael Salt; and YNF Organiser Joe Pearce.

Three hundred people attended the rally at Caxton Hall, Westminster. The Great Hall was decked out in Union Jack flags. The atmosphere was tremendous as people listened to the rousing speeches. The collection raised over £500 towards the cost of the election.

Small firms get the message

JUST occasionally people who have little to do with politics stumble across the efforts of the media and the political establishment to exclude the National Front from normal political life.

Usually they simply bow to this combined pressure, but not always...

In mid-May Andrew Bruns, NF Chairman, agreed to an interview by Stan

Mendham, Chief Executive of The Forum of Private Business, an independent organisation representing the interests of small businesses.

Mr. Mendham obtained similar interviews with Cecil Parkinson, Chairman of the Conservative Party, Jim Mortimer, General Secretary of the Labour Party, Viscount Chandos of the SDP, and Cyril Smith of the Liberal Party.

Two page statements of the policies of the National Front and the other four parties towards small businesses were then circulated by the Forum to its 10,000 members.

Representatives of all five parties were then invited to a press conference to be held in central London on 2nd June.

The other four parties initially accepted invitations and then all withdrew them on realising that the NF would be represented.

Mr. Mendham refused to give way and consequently the press conference took place with numerous press reporters. The National Front was the only political party represented.

HUNDREDS of National Front marchers maintained the party's tradition of honouring St. George's Day despite Police, Home Office and local government efforts to ban the patriotic event.

The NF originally planned to stage its march in Slough, Berkshire, on Saturday 23rd April (St. George's Day).

NF officials gave the local Police several weeks' notice of the event, and a hall was booked for a social.

However, the Chief Constable of the Thames Valley Police, Mr. Peter Imbert, liaised with the Home Office and Slough Borough Council to ban the march.

His officers also pressured the Council to break its hall-hire contract.

So the marchers were re-directed to nearby High Wycombe where, despite a substantial local Black and Asian population, an entirely peaceful march was held through the town centre.

"Splinter groups always fail" (*)

FIASCO is the only word to describe the performance of John Tyndall's British National Party in the General Election.

When Tyndall broke away from the NF in 1980 he claimed to have taken with him "the majority of the NF's membership and branches". Yet the BNP could only manage to nominate 52 candidates compared to the 60 nominated by the NF.

Most NF candidates stood in their home areas and were supported by their local branches and election leaflets. Many BNP candidates were 'ghosts' standing hundreds of miles from where they live.

For example, the Bradford candidate lives in Sevenoaks; the Glasgow candidate lives in Edmonton; a Leeds candidate lives in Cornwall and an Islington candidate lives in Plymouth!

Only four BNP candidates were provided with election leaflets — members of the 'Royal Family' (Tyndall's wife, Valerie, and his parents-in-law Charles and Violet Parker) and Sycophant-in-Waiting, Richard Edmonds.

BNP candidates averaged only 271 votes (0.59%) compared to the NF's average of 451 votes (1.10%). Even the alliance of Loony/Fancy Dress/Magic Mushroom candidates achieved a higher average percentage (0.61%) than the BNP!

The BNP's best vote was 632 (1.26%). The best NF vote was 993 (3.68%). Two BNP candidates won fewer than 100 votes, and two scored less than 0.30% of the poll. No NF candidates did so badly.

The three BNP candidates who tried to upstage the NF were humiliated.

In Hackney South & Shoreditch Tyndall's wife won only 374 votes (0.98%) compared to the NF's 593 (1.55%).

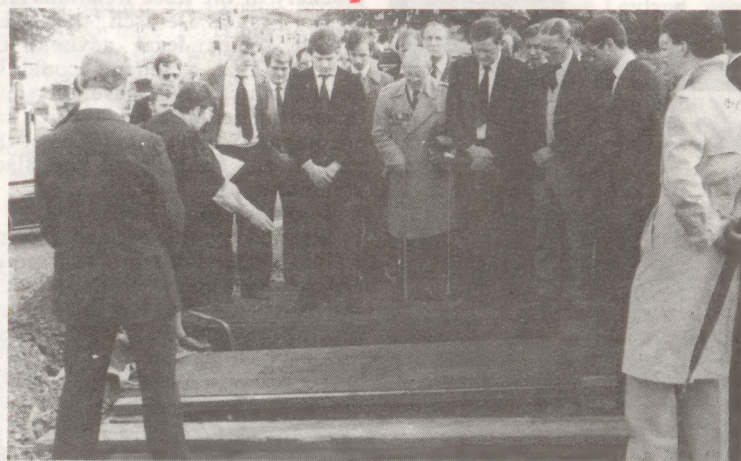

In Islington South & Finsbury the BNP won only 94 votes compared to the NF's 341 (0.92%).

In Worthing the BNP won only 103 votes (0.25%) compared to the NF's 292 (0.54%).

Bungling by "The Leader" resulted in the BNP Manifesto failing to appear until a week before Polling Day!
